RULES OF CHILD USAGE

Children aged 0-11 must be supervised by an adult at all times.

Children aged 12-15 may use the Club leisure facilities, including the changing rooms until 6.30pm and the Club Lounge until 8.00pm.

Roko supervise children within Junior Activity classes, but cannot take any responsibility for supervision of children before the start of the class or once children have exited the class. Parents must therefore be immediately on hand at all times to supervise their children.

Children aged 0-11 are not permitted to use the fitness arena, sauna, spa or steam room at anytime.

Children must use the same sex changing rooms after their 7th birthday.

No person under the age of 18 may use the sunbeds.

Special evening time extensions may be made for family events and will be displayed on the clubs notice boards.

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION

Fit Kids – uses playful activities to improve motor skills, co-ordination and confidence. All children should bring a drink with them and wear suitable footwear. For ages 4-10 years.

Family Fit – is a welcome for all members of the family together. Paperwork and booking requirements are covered during this session. Junior members (over 5's & Teenagers) go on a tour around the building with the Family Activity Co-ordinator who will point out key things the children may find useful to know – finishing up back in the Family Activity area for some ice breaker activities if there is time. Families with under 5's will have a chance to experience the crèche area with their children.

PLEASE NOTE

All classes should be booked through reception (01634 233348) up to 7 days in advance.

Members who arrive to the class without a booking, unfortunately, cannot be guaranteed a place.

Classes for under 16's have limited spaces so all attendees must be booked, non-members can only book on the day of the class.

Please see the Junior Activities board and the main Junior Activities leaflet for full details of all Junior Activities at Roko Gillingham.
